

INTRODUCTION

InShadow (International Festival of Video, Performance and Technologies) is a dynamic and engaging festival, which asserts itself as an international reference in the scope of interdisciplinary contemporary creation, highlighting the intersections of video, performance and technologies. It is based on an original concept that links the binominal body-technology, with emphasis to the presence of body in image, screen, stage and other spaces.

InShadow promotes the crossing of video/cinema and dance/performance languages, through abstract or experimental narratives which reflect, investigate and present solutions for a cine-choreographic conception between camera and body, exploring aesthetic and technical relations within an experimental approach.

InShadow program includes a variety of performances, solos, a video-dance competition, a documentary exhibition, special sessions, installations, exhibitions, workshops and marterclasses, aimed to a broad audience.

InShadow comes to its 4th Edition in 2012. It was born from Dance Without Shadow International Showcase, born in 2004 with a program focused on video-dance. From 2006 to 2008 over 100 artists and companies participated in the Showcase, among directors, choreographers, performers, transdisciplinary artists, musicians and interpreters. Over 3 editions, InShadow has been attended by over 7.000 people.

InShadow searches, within the world of imagination, for the exchange and dialogue among different cultures, experiences, methods, visions, knowledge and affections, defining itself as an observatory which has its intensity and subtlety centred on the duals thought/action and creativity/innovation.

InShadow challenges inquietude, integrating plural debates and practices that turn 'invisible' into 'visible'. A Festival for everyone, evoking multiple sensitivities in the common experience of a space where image crosses the body.

REGULATIONS

A) GENERAL SELECTION CRITERIA AND PARTICIPATION CONDITIONS

Vo'Arte Association and InShadow Festival accept national and international applications in the following categories and according to the general criteria described below:

VIDEO

The videos in the competition will be selected according to: creativity, experimentation, theme, narrative and image, sound and editing quality. The work must have as its primary concern the creation of a choreography/dance/movement specifically for the camera. This includes video clips based in movement and art video.
In what concerns to the documentary genre, it may be a portrait about the life or work of a choreographer or dance company, one aspect of dance history, artistic creation processes, etc. The audiovisual record should engage with elements of the choreographic language and / or supplement it. Full records of stage choreographies will not be contemplated.

Participation conditions _ video

- Genre: video-dance and art video (Video-dance Competition), documentaries (DocShadow Competition).
- Length: video-dance and art video: must not exceed 20 minutes; documentary: reference duration 30 minutes.
- There is no limit regarding the videos' date of production.
- The works with dialogs must contain subtitles in English. In case they're originally in another language and do not hold English subtitles or dubbing, the works incur the risk of exclusion.
- The screening will be held in DVD or, if necessary, in another format timely communicated to the selected. Participation implies acceptance of the screening in this format. The screening quality is guaranteed by the organization. The quality of the copies is granted by the authors.
- One night stay will be granted to the first two submissions in case their works are selected.

PERFORMANCE (SOLOS)

The performance must be original and propose body's connexion to technologies, sound and image, from interactive devices with which the performer assumes an inventive and exploratory relationship.

INSTALLATIONS

The work up for competition will be valued for the possibility of its framework in the Festival's partner spaces. It may be a sculptural object, video (single-channel or multi-channel, conceived to be displayed in loop), interactive (proposing to explore innovative interfaces in relation to the artistic object), sound research and also include performance.

Participation Conditions _ performances and installations

- Maximum length of 20 minutes (preferred aspect, and applicable only to performances).
- Reduced use of means, technical and human resources (preferably).
- Possible presentation in unconventional places
- Participation in these sections is under no remuneration.
